CMTO Council Meetings - Guidelines for Observers

CMTO welcomes members of the public to attend Council meetings. The College's guidelines for observing Council meetings are:

- CMTO Council meetings are open to the public, with the exception of any “in camera” portion dealing with personnel matters or other sensitive or confidential material;
- Council meetings are held in the Council meeting room at the College of Massage Therapists of Ontario located at 1867 Yonge Street, Suite 810, Toronto, Ontario, M4S 1Y5;
- Members of the public are welcome to observe the Council meeting, but cannot engage in Council discussions. Observers are asked to refrain from participating in the meeting or transmitting information to Council members during the meeting. Along with Council members, observers are asked to mute cell phones and other devices during the meeting; and
- The College of Massage Therapists of Ontario is a scent free environment. Observers are asked to please refrain from using scented products when attending Council meetings.

If you have any questions prior to or after the meeting, contact:
